ASAM STATE OF THE ART

Course in Addiction Medicine

Dear Colleagues:

The ASAM 2021 State of the Art Course in Addiction Medicine delivers cutting-edge insight into scientific advances and emerging evidence in addiction medicine. The program covers the most pressing issues identified by the nation's top scientists and leading clinicians who dedicate themselves daily to improve outcomes for patients with addiction.

The ASAM State of the Art Course is a unique opportunity to learn from—and network with—addiction leaders and researchers. The Program Planning Committee has hand-selected the nation's leading researchers and clinicians to deliver this outstanding program. Presentations are divided into ten sessions, spanning a wide variety of topics, and dive deep into the most pressing clinical issues. You will also have the opportunity to participate in an interactive discussion with distinguished leaders at the Federal Agency Session.

I encourage you to register today and look forward to seeing you in Washington, DC!

Sincerely,

Michael I. Fingerhood, MD, FACP, DFASAM, Chair

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this educational activity, participants should be able to:

- Discuss the important, new, scientific breakthroughs in the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of addiction.
- Critically evaluate new science and describe how it changes the current understanding of addiction and co-occurring medical or psychiatric disorders.
- Develop practical applications for integrating new and emerging science into practice.
- Identify gaps in the field of addiction medicine that future research can address.
- Create a network of colleagues and resources to support the learner's practice or form future research collaborations.

Course Format

The State of the Art Course is divided into ten main sessions:

- 1) COVID-19: Current and Future Impacts
- 2) Co-Occurring Psychiatric Disorders
- 3) Co-Occurring Medical Disorders
- 4) New Evidence for Non-Pharmacological Treatment
- 5) Addressing Treatment Disparities
- 6) Stimulants and Synthetic Drugs
- 7) New in Neurobiology
- 8) Alcohol Use Disorder: Pharmacotherapy and Recovery
- 9) Cannabis and Synthetic Cannabinoids
- 10) Adolescents and Young Adults

Course Credits

Three Virtual Pre-Course Workshops | October 18-20, 2021

NOTE: These virtual pre-course workshops are offered the days leading up to the ASAM State of the Art Course. Separate registration and fees apply.

ASAM PAIN & ADDICTION Applied Skills Workshop

Monday, October 18, 2021 | 10:00 am – 6:00 pm ET

Faculty: Denise M. Josey, MD, MPH, MS; Launette Marie Rieb, MD, MSc, CCFP, FCFP, FASAM; Gregory Rudolf, MD, DFASAM

The ASAM Pain & Addiction: Applied Skills Workshop is a new, intermediate level workshop designed to increase learners' skills in treating pain and addiction. The virtual workshop will be a dynamic and interactive opportunity for those who have some experience in pain and addiction to apply essential treatment skills to their practice.

ASAM designates this live activity for a maximum of 6 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ASAM MOTIVATIONAL INTERVIEWING Workshop

Tuesday, October 19, 2021 | 10:00 am – 5:30 pm ET

Faculty: Jeffrey J. DeVido, MD, MTS, FASAM; Brian Hurley, MD, MBA, DFASAM; Carla B. Marienfeld, MD, DFAPA, FASAM; Caridad Ponce-Martinez, MD

The ASAM Motivational Interviewing Workshop is an engaging and interactive practice-based workshop designed to introduce and expand participants' knowledge and competence utilizing Motivational Interviewing (MI) in addiction treatment settings. MI is a goal-oriented, collaborative counseling style that evokes a person's own motivations for and commitment to change.

Physicians, clinicians, counselors, and all those speaking with patients with addiction often find that one of the main barriers to effective treatment is the patients' perceived lack of motivation to make changes. Without motivation on the patient's part, making or sustaining progress with treatment goals frequently stalls. MI is one technique that treatment clinicians can utilize to help patients make positive changes. Participants of this workshop will be introduced or reintroduced to the key concepts and skills of MI and explore ways to effectively integrate MI into addiction treatment to help promote positive patient outcomes.

ASAM designates this live activity for a maximum of 6.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ASAM FUNDAMENTALS™ of Addiction Medicine

Wednesday, October 20, 2021 | 10:00 am – 7:00 pm ET

Faculty: Angela Colistra, PhD, LPC, CAADC, CCS; Abby Letcher, MD; Joanna Linn, PhD, LCMHCS, LCAS, CCS; Elizabeth Salisbury-Afshar, MD, MPH, FAAFP, FACP, DFASAM; Peter L. Selby, MBBS, CCFP, FCFP, MHSc, DFASAM

The ASAM Fundamentals of Addiction Medicine Workshop is a practical, case-based workshop designed for providers new to the field of addiction medicine, such as primary care physicians, clinicians, and behavioral health specialists, who see patients at risk for or with addiction. Participants of this workshop will learn more about addiction medicine and how to screen, diagnose, treat, and/or refer patients with addiction – many of whom are already being seen for commonly occurring medical and psychiatric comorbidities.

The virtual workshop is designed to be energetic and interactive. Attendees will work through session activities and cases in engaging virtual formats.

ASAM designates this live activity for a maximum of 8 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
